I'm a Wellness Advocate with dōTERRA Essential Oils, the world's largest essential oil company. The oils are 100% pure – For problems with head tension, digestive tract, or sleep, dōTERRA can:

- Help manage emotions
- Soothe skin irritations
- Promote digestion
- Support healthy immune functions
- Promote restful sleep
- And much more

What are essential oils? The essence of a plant distilled into essential oils. Would you like better health, vitality, and a cleaner environment, for you and your family? I'm passionate about health and wellness, and want to help you to have a better life, by sharing the life-enhancing benefits of tested grade essential oils. I know you're wondering how you can benefit from these fantastic oils. The starter kits have the 10 basic essential oils, which have over 300 uses.

- Family Essentials Kit, samples or travel, 85 drops per bottle £102
- Home Essentials Kit 205 drops per bottle, + diffuser + 3 extra oils 3x the oil, less than half price per oil £199

So, you get all this.. and ME, and my fantastic team for support. You will have access to our WhatsApp, and Facebook groups, where you can post and get feedback from the whole team. And get messages with helpful tips and suggestions. Before you commit, or spend any money, please contact me and we can discuss your needs and aspirations for the future. I can send you samples, and more information, or we can have a meeting 1:1.
